Ali Tilla

Ali Tilla offers a wide range of marine beauties to discover. The massive is living space for playful clown fishes, hungry morays lurking in their caves and many other fascinating marine species.

Kalu Ghiri and Sanbank

Not far away from the neighboring Resort Moofushi lies the so called “black reef” or Kalu Ghiri in Maldivian. It serves as shelter for two enormous Napoleon fishes, and is inhabited by numerous blue trigger fishes. After the snorkeling we will bring you to a white sandbank and let you inhale the extraordinary beauty of the Maldivian nature.

Kandholodhoo Reef

Little bit far away from Athuruga, but easily reachable with our speed boat in 30 minutes, the reef of Kandholodhoo island resort is one of the most fascinating reef of Ari Atoll, full of uncommon fish and marine turtles.

Dega Ghiri and Sand Bank

Dega Ghiri is a round shaped reef off the beaten track. Plenty anemones with playful clown fishes cover this reef. Turtles, white tip sharks and bat fishes are common encounters as well. The possibility to enter the reef and enjoy the beauty of a natural swimming pool makes Dega Ghiri worth visiting.

Embodhoo Reef and Island

Embodhoo is one of the uninhabited Islands surrounding our resort. Visible from Athuruga it takes around 20 minutes by Dhoni to reach this solitary isle. The house reef of Embodhoo treasures turtles, eagle rays, snappers and big groupers hiding in their caves. The sandy beach and crystal clear water of Embodhoo give you the ultimate Maldivian experience.

Manta Point

The manta point is in the Maavaru Lagoon, close by Moofushi Island Resort. Over there you have the chance to swim with one of the biggest fish of the sea in an incomparable way.
